

Ross Farm Museum is hiring a Summer Student as Museum Shop Assistant.

Position: Museum Shop Student Assistant

Location: Ross Farm Museum, New Ross, Nova Scotia

Duration: 13 Weeks

Pay: $16.50/hour

As a Museum Shop Student Assistant, you'll play a pivotal role in enhancing the visitor experience at the Pedlar's Shop. Engage with visitors, showcase museum-related merchandise, and contribute to the success of the shop's operations. This is a unique opportunity to develop valuable skills in customer service, sales, and cultural heritage, all while being part of a passionate team dedicated to preserving and sharing Nova Scotia's history.

Qualifications + Requirements:

- Currently pursuing or completing studies in business, marketing, museum studies, hospitality, or a related field.
- Strong interpersonal and customer service skills.
- Basic computer skills, including familiarity with point-of-sale systems an asset.
- Interest in cultural and historical heritage.
- Ability to work in a collaborative team environment.
- Enthusiasm for history, heritage, and farm life.
- Ability to engage with guests and share knowledge effectively.
- Availability for the full 8-week duration starting July 1st

Responsibilities:

- Demonstrate traditional agricultural skills and heritage practices to museum guests.
- Participate in farm chores and assist with animal and crop husbandry.
- Contribute to the overall operation of our traditional and modern farm.
- Maintain a welcoming and engaging demeanour with visitors.

Join us this summer for a unique opportunity to blend history, agriculture, and education at Ross Farm Museum! Apply today by sending a brief resume to rossfarm@novascotia.ca;

please put Museum Shop Student in the subject line or submit via the Young Canada Works Website.